SECRETARY OF STATE

PIERRE, SOUTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has proclaimed May 1st as Child Health Day and called upon all Governors of the States of the Union to make such a proclamation to their people; and

WHEREAS, the responsibility for the well being of children is not only an individual duty but a community responsibility as well, and believing that the health, physical fitness and cultural training is the inherent right of every child in South Dakota,

I, Warren Green, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May Day as Child Health Day.

"Support your Community Child Health Program--It Protects Your Home" is the theme for this May Day and will point the way to greater community responsibility and cooperation for the welfare of the children of our state. I urge its fulfillment for the benefit of the children of South Dakota.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of South Dakota.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Pierre, this Twelfth day of March, 1932.

WARREN GREEN
Governor.
